

YOUR GOVERNMENT & YOUR VOTE

You may think that politics don't affect you all that much, but government policies impact your everyday life. Depending on which elected office has oversight on issues important to you, voting is the easiest way for you to have some control over important policy decisions. From education to transportation, your vote for leaders in local, state and federal government matters.

ELECTED OFFICES

CITY/TOWN
LOCAL

RHODE ISLAND
STATE

UNITED STATES FEDERAL

MAYOR
TOWN ADMINISTRATOR
CITY/TOWN COUNCIL
SCHOOL COMMITTEE

GOVERNOR
GENERAL OFFICERS
STATE REPRESENTATIVES
STATE SENATORS

PRESIDENT
VICE PRESIDENT
US REPRESENTATIVES
US SENATORS

CHOOSE THE ISSUES THAT MATTER TO YOU

FIND THE ELECTIONS THAT NEED YOUR VOTE

EDUCATION

- Debt reduction for student loans
- Higher investment in K-12 schools
- Free community college

ENVIRONMENT

- Reduce carbon emissions
- Expand recycling efforts in my neighborhood
- Ban smoking at beaches

PUBLIC SAFETY

- Criminal background checks for gun purchases
- Dangerous intersection needs a traffic signal
- Install better lighting in neighborhood park
- Legalize marijuana

ECONOMIC SECURITY

- Ensure workers earn a living wage
- Housing affordability
- Underemployment

TRANSPORTATION

- More bike paths and pedestrian friendly walkways
- Better and more efficient public transportation
- Ensure ride sharing services are safe

